

ZIMTA Research Symposium (ZIMRES) is an initiative that offers an opportunity for education practitioners; that is classroom practitioners, education administrators, inspectors, lecturers, publishers and policy makers to share their research work that has a bearing on the education fabric and sphere across the full spectrum of our society and even beyond. Read More