ZIMTA NUGGET

FRIDAY 11 FEBRUARY 2022.

1. Today Friday, 11 February 2022, ZIMTA is focusing on membership protection. Yesterday, the Ministry of Primary and Secondary Education made a pronouncement to the effect that all educators who had been absent from Monday have been suspended forthwith.
 - 1.1 We have been proactive as ZIMTA in that immediately after the pronouncement was made, we had a sit-down meeting with two Ministers, the Minister of Public Service Labour and Social Welfare, and Minister of Primary and Secondary Education and discussed, inter alia, this issue.
2. Today the NJNC is sitting and at the end of the meeting you are going to be appraised of the outcome and consulted on the way forward.
3. In the meantime, we are using all avenues to protect the interests of our members including those who have joined us since Monday 7 February 2022.
 - 3.1 We further request that those of our members who have been served with suspension letters or those who are not our members but have been served with suspension letters and want to join us forthwith, must without delay send their suspension letters to their respective Provincial Executive Officers who in turn will forward such letters and where applicable membership forms without delay to Head Office.
4. We urge our members to remain calm during this period as we make all efforts to advance and protect their interests. Believe in us.

Thank you

Mr R. Gundane
